

Babcock Ranch Preserve Combined Agency Management Plan Outline

- Executive Summary (from DEP-DSL model)
- General mission, goals of BRP Board and agencies, management plan purpose

INTRODUCTION/ GENERAL INFORMATION SECTION

- Descriptive Information/ Background
 - Common name of property, legal description, and acreage
 - Location, boundaries, and improvements
 - Land Acquisition Program/ Purchase
 - Purposes for acquisition
 - Title interest
 - Encumbrances
 - Management authority
 - Executive/Legislative/Management directives
 - Proximity to other public resources
 - Optimal management boundary
 - Surplus land assessment
 - Designated single or multiple-use management
- Agency and Public involvement
 - Responsibilities of managing agencies
 - Public and local govt. involvement
 - Compliance with comprehensive plan
 - Compliance with State, federal and local govt, requirements

NATURAL AND CULTURAL RESOURCES SECTION

- Previous Use and development-
- Physiography-
 - Soils
 - Topography
 - Climate
- Forest/ Timber resources
- Vegetation (includes swamps, marshes, or other wetlands)
- Water resources (includes Aquatic Preserve information and whether or not an Area of Critical State Concern. Also water quality classification for each water body.)
- Mineral resources
- Scenic Unique natural features
- Outstanding native landscapes
- Beaches and dunes
- Swamps, marshes or other wetlands
- Fish, Wildlife and Flora
 - Resident fauna and flora
 - Endangered, threatened, and species of special concern
- Archaeological and historical resources
- Plans to locate fragile, non-renewable natural and cultural resources

MANAGEMENT ACTIVITIES AND INTENT

- Existing and Planned uses
 - Vegetation/ Natural communities
 - Fire Management
 - Silvicultural guidelines and forest resource management
 - Soil
 - Hydrology
 - Fish and wildlife
 - Recreation
- Resource management goals and objectives with priority schedule
- Resource management challenges and strategies
 - The above two sections to include items such as:*
 - Property boundaries establishment and preservation
 - Roads
 - Law enforcement
 - Research projects/ specimen collection
 - Non-native invasive species
 - Insects and disease
 - Ground disturbing activities
 - Adjacent conflicting uses
- Assessment of impact of planned uses
- Alternate uses considered and explanation of why not adopted

MANAGEMENT SUMMARY

- Operations infrastructure
- Management needs, cost estimates, and funding sources
- Multiple-use potential- income producing activities
- Potential use of private land managers
- Land Management Review (Have statement regarding land management reviews but do not make part of [future] plan.)

LITERATURE CITED

EXHIBITS (Have all (or most) appendices/exhibits/maps in the back of the plan as exhibits.)

- Location or Basemap (includes boundary, structures, and roads)
- Lease (or legal description)
- Other public lands1 vicinity map
- Proposed Acquisitions/ Optimal boundary map
- Babcock Ranch Management, LLC- Management Agreement
- Babcock Ranch Preserve Business Plan (when and if available)
- Public Involvement
- Letter of compliance with local government comprehensive plan
- Soil series descriptions
- Soil map

- Timber assessment Silviculture operations
- FNAI data usage consent letter and element occurrence data
- Archaeological and Historic Resources and Guidelines for the Management of those Resources
- Any scoping documents
- Natural Communities/ Land Cover map
- Wildlife and Element Occurrence map (Make sure no specifics as to listed species locations are given.)
- Recreation map(s)